

INVITATION Opening of Exhibition at Raillery Hub Saturday January 11th at 2pm

“Through My Eyes “

Exhibition at Raillery Hub by Leianne Ivankovic

& Raillery Friday Art Group

Leianne, first began painting 25 years ago. Inspired by her artistic mother, she began painting pastels for a hobby and over the subsequent 6 years she continued to improve and develop a love for creating art. She started to experiment and ventured into watercolour, oils, acrylic and mixed media. This gave her a thirst for learning so she joined Sunbury Art Society and drew upon its pool of knowledge and experience to improve in every way possible.

Raillery Hub Friday Art Group Artists

A group of local artists meet at the station on a Friday to share their love of painting and to learn new techniques from their artist mentor Gabriele. This collection of their work presents a diverse range of subjects and techniques. Some artists have been producing art works all their life and others are newcomers to the field. This is an open ended group where artists can learn together. Gabriele has given great encouragement to members in this presentation of their work.
